

Jeremy Webb

IP Paralegal

Jeremy is a patents paralegal who undertakes a range of patent work including preparing national phasing instructions, putting together Information disclosure statements for the US; performing status and renewal checks on large patent families; and researching case law. Jeremy also works with the firm's litigation team drawing on his experience providing litigation support in trials before the High Court and the IPEC.

Jeremy joined J A Kemp in 2016 having previously worked at Allen & Overy LLP.

Services & Specialisms

Patents

Location

London

Education

Durham University, Master's Degree in History and Philosophy of Science and Medicine, Bachelor's Degree in Natural Sciences (Biology)

Qualifications

Legal Practice Course, University of Law; Patent Administrators course, CIPA

Contact

Email: jwebb@jakemp.com

80 Turnmill Street
London
EC1M 5QU